About Ace & TJ's Grin Kids

When Ace & TJ began their morning radio show in Charlotte, N.C., they were besieged by requests from numerous nonprofits. They began donating time and money to a number of different charities but eventually felt called to develop their own charity dedicated to bringing joy into the lives of terminally ill and chronically disabled children. In January 2000, Ace & TJ's Grin Kids was born as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) charity. The organization got its name from their morning show motto "You Grin, You're In!"

Each year, the nonprofit aims to provide a new group of deserving children and their families with a magical and memorable five-day, all-expense-paid vacation to Walt Disney World.
